Feature Importance

'total_amount_sum'

The feature 'total_amount_sum' reflects the overall spending behavior of customers, while 'discount_sum' and 'paid_amount_sum' provide insights into the level of discounts applied and the actual revenue generated from transactions, respectively. These financial indicators help understand the customers' purchasing patterns and the financial impact on the business.

'discount_sum'

'paid_amount_sum'

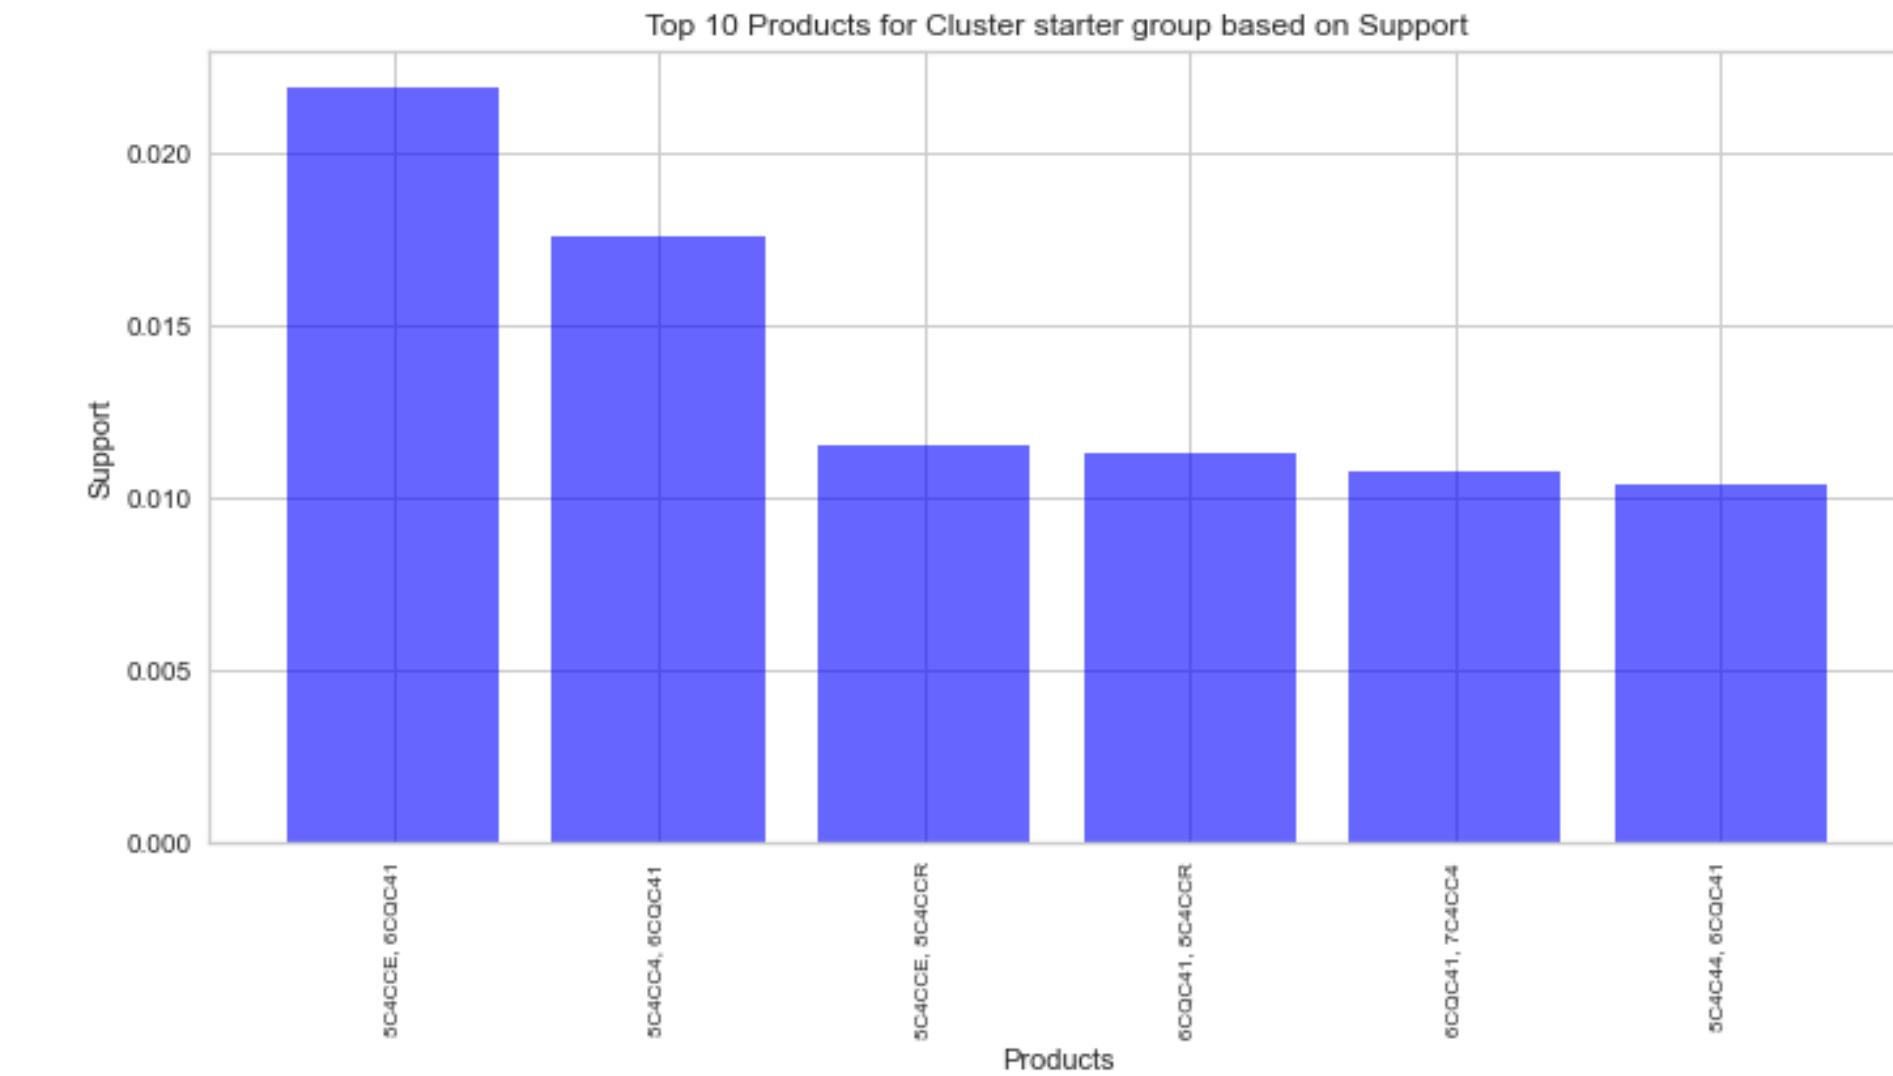

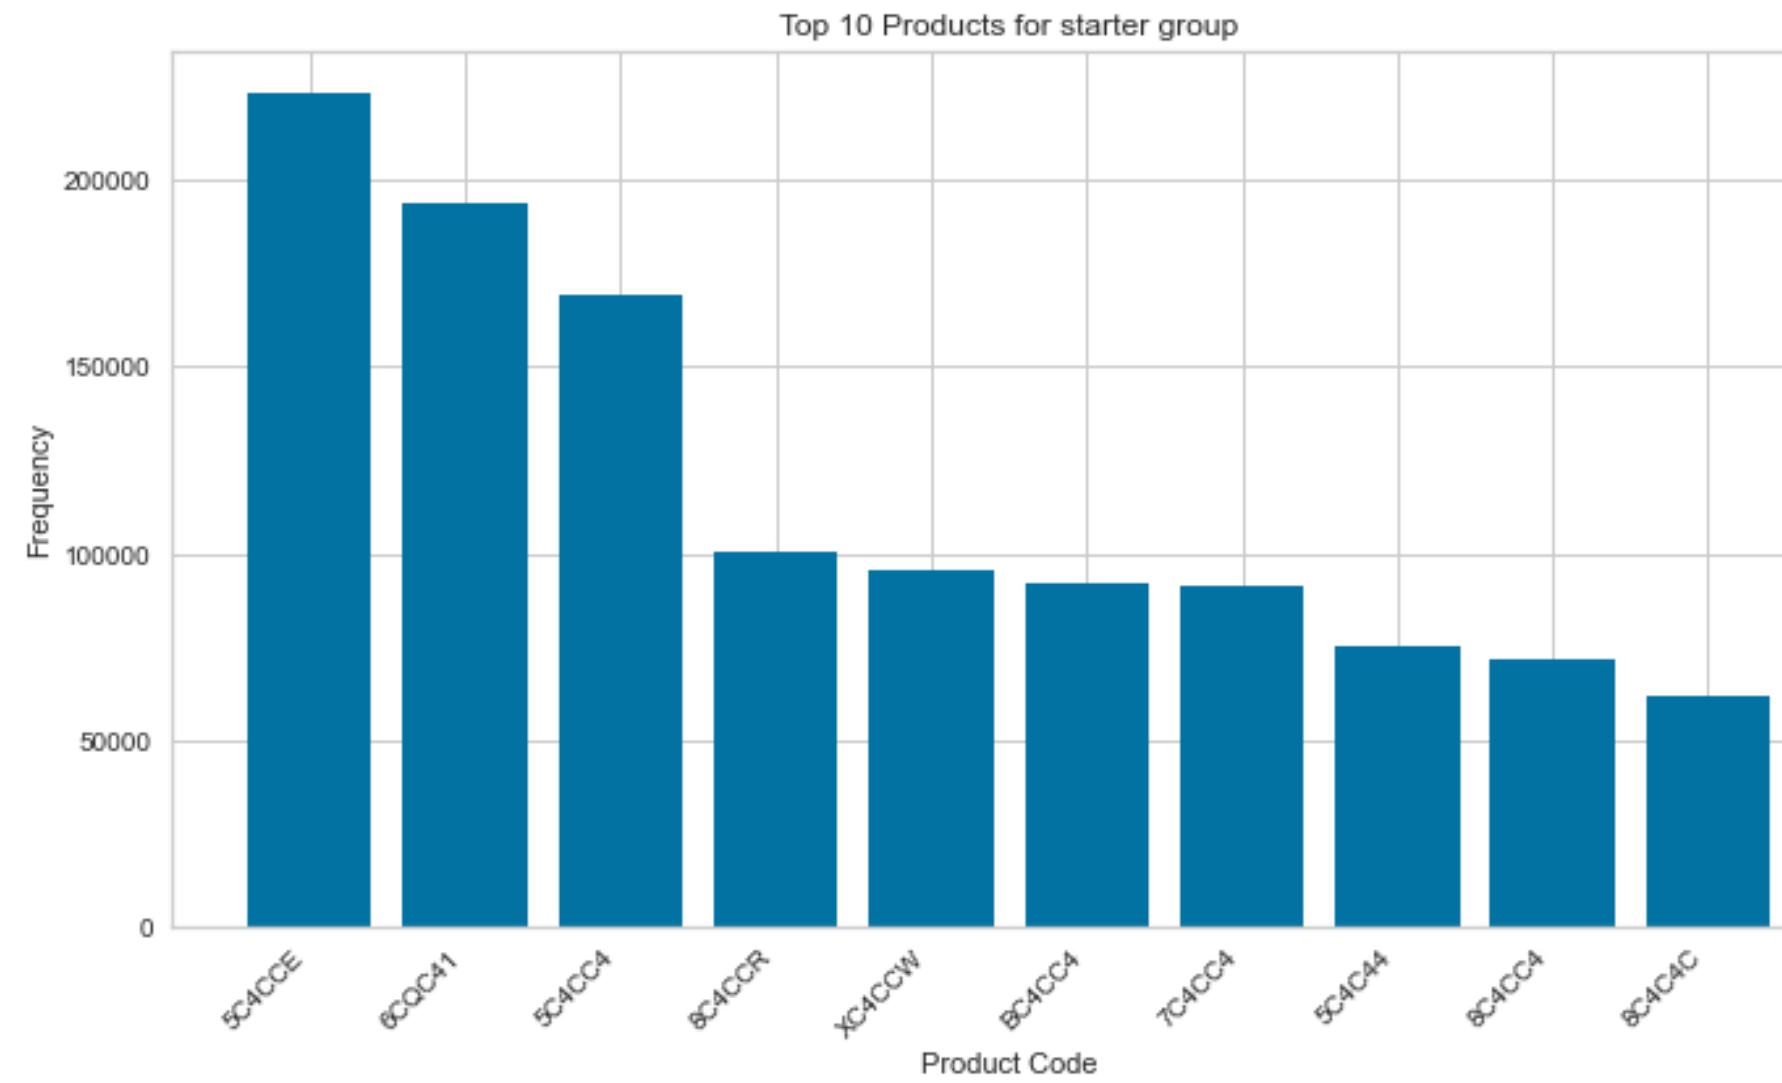

The inclusion of 'downlinesales' as a feature is particularly relevant in the MLM business context, as it represents the sales generated from the downline network. This feature sheds light on the effectiveness of the MLM structure and the contribution of downline sales to the overall business performance.
